

Coordinated Campaign Campus Fellow

The Maine Democratic Party is looking for Campus Fellows to lead campus organizing efforts and mobilize students for the November 2026 election. The Campus Fellow will serve as the primary student organizer on their college campus, working closely with the Campus Manager to build a strong campus program. This person will lead student outreach, coordinate volunteers, help build excitement around candidate events, and engage voters both on and off campus through Election Day.

Responsibilities

- Lead campus outreach efforts, including texting, tabling, canvassing, and other voter contact activities.
- Recruit, engage, and organize students and volunteers on campus.
- Help organize volunteer shifts, campus events, and voter contact activities.
- Coordinate and support campus volunteers.
- Build excitement and turnout for candidate events, campus events, and organizing activities.
- Contact and engage voters both on and off campus.
- Maintain regular communication with the Campus Manager and provide updates on campus organizing efforts.
- Collaborate among students and Campus Manager on Election Day priorities as needed.

The Ideal Candidate will have:

- Interest or experience in student organizing, campaigns, volunteering, or community organizing.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- The ability to build relationships and engage students from a variety of backgrounds.
- The ability to work independently while staying connected with the broader campaign team.
- Previous campaign or organizing experience is helpful but not required.

To Apply:

To apply, please email mparker@mainedems.org your resume. This position is temporary and part-time and will run through the November 2026 election. The position operates up to 10 hours a week at a rate of $16.50/hour. The campus fellow must live and work in Maine. This is a fast-paced, hands-on role for someone who enjoys relational and electoral organizing, is driven, and engages students to commit to electing Democrats up and down the ballot this November!

This position is expected to work approximately 10 hours per week through November 2026. Campus Fellows will primarily work in person on their assigned campus and may also be asked to participate in campaign activities, meetings, or events as needed. Because of the nature of campaign work, evening and weekend availability will be required. Physical Requirements: This position may require standing or being on your feet for extended periods of time, as well as occasional lifting and carrying of campaign materials and supplies weighing up to 25 pounds.

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy: The Maine Democratic Party is an equal opportunity employer and it is our policy to recruit, hire, train, promote and administer any and all personnel actions without regard to sex, race, age, color, creed, national origin, religion, economic status, sexual orientation, veteran status, gender identity or expression, ethnic identity or physical disability, or any other legally protected basis.
